PRINCIPAL MR. D. P. GULERIA MOTIVATES CLASS V STUDENTS TO CULTIVATE POSITIVE HABITS, VALUES, AND SELF-BELIEF

The Principal, Mr. D. P. Guleria, conducted an engaging Life Skill Session for the students of Class V, focusing on the importance of developing positive habits and values. The session highlighted qualities of being a good listener, reader, and speaker, and emphasized nurturing the mind and heart with values like honesty, perseverance, empathy, and kindness.

Students were encouraged to build high self-esteem, self-awareness, and adopt the attitude of “Yes, I can.” The Principal reminded the students that everyone is unique and that good thoughts lead to better human beings. The discussion also covered essential human qualities such as acceptance, cleanliness, personal hygiene, and sensible communication.

Beautiful messages from the Bhagavad Gita were shared, teaching students to stay away from anger, practice patience, and develop confidence and faith. The session inspired students to become balanced, confident, and compassionate individuals.

FOUNDATIONAL STAGE CELEBRATES WORLD POST DAY

On 9th October 2025, BCM School Chandigarh Road Foundational Stage celebrated World Post Day with great enthusiasm.

Nursery children joyfully coloured pictures of post boxes, learning about one of the oldest means of communication. LKG students showcased their creativity by colouring the Earth and a letter box to create an attractive poster symbolising global connection through letters. UKG students enthusiastically drew and coloured the Earth and a post box while gaining knowledge about the importance and functioning of the post office.

These activities encouraged gratitude towards postal workers and highlighted the significance of traditional communication in the digital era.

CLASS PRESENTATION GUIDING LIGHTS, SHAPING FUTURE

Class IX-F conducted a captivating morning assembly on the theme Guiding Lights, Shaping Future. The programme began with a warm and heartfelt welcome by the class in-charge, setting a graceful tone for the event. A mesmerizing welcome dance and positive affirmations filled the atmosphere with energy and optimism. The Gita Saar, poem, and speech beautifully conveyed the message of wisdom, gratitude, and the invaluable role of teachers as true guiding lights.

A soulful guitar performance and a thought-provoking Nukkad Natak added charm and depth to the presentation. The rhythmic beats of the Bhangra brought the event to a vibrant close, leaving the audience enthralled. The assembly concluded with a sincere vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all who made the morning memorable.

It was an inspiring, well-coordinated presentation that truly celebrated the spirit of guidance, learning, and a brighter future.

CLASS PRESENTATION: SWADESH MANTHAN

The students of Class VIII G presented an engaging programme on Swadesh Manthan, highlighting the rich culture and traditions of West Bengal. The event began with a Shalok, followed by a play on West Bengal showcasing its heritage. A melodious song “Kholo Kholo Darwaze” inspired positivity, while a play on Compassion conveyed the value of kindness. The presentation concluded with a lively dance on “Kisi Ki Muskurahaton Pe Ho Nisaar.” The performance reflected students’ creativity, teamwork, and patriotic spirit.
