BCM CAREER CELL ORGANIZES INSIGHTFUL SESSION ON CAREERS IN DESIGN FOR GRADE 8 STUDENTS

The BCM Career Cell organized an engaging and informative session on Careers in Design for the students of Grade VIII. The session was conducted by Ms. Tarveen and Ms. Gurbinder Viridi, who enlightened students about the vast scope and exciting opportunities in the field of design.

The resource persons guided students through various branches of design including fashion, interior, product, communication, and graphic design. They also introduced students to renowned design institutes and shared insights into the skills, creativity, and aptitude required to pursue a successful career in this dynamic field.

Through interactive discussions and real-world examples, students gained a better understanding of how design careers blend innovation, aesthetics, and problem-solving. The session proved to be a valuable exposure for young learners, helping them explore their interests and think creatively about future career choices.

Such initiatives by the BCM Career Cell aim to nurture career awareness and self-discovery among students from an early stage, empowering them to make informed and inspired decisions for their future.

“PUNJAB – FARM TO FAME”: A TRIBUTE TO PUNJAB’S SPIRIT AND HERITAGE

Class XJ stole the show with their "Punjab – Farm to Fame" morning assembly, celebrating Punjab's agricultural excellence and cultural vibrancy. The event began with a solemn Shlok, followed by a melodious song honouring Punjab's hardworking farmers. A compelling one-act play depicted the state's agricultural transformation from traditional to modern sustainable practices. The assembly culminated with a vibrant dance performance, exuberantly showcasing Punjabi culture.

Described as informative and inspiring, the program fittingly celebrated Punjab's journey from agrarian roots to prominence. It highlighted the creativity and dedication of Class XJ students, making it memorable. Parents expressed appreciation for the assembly, praising students' efforts and cultural resonance.

FOUNDATIONAL STAGE OBSERVES ANIMAL WELFARE DAY

The little learners of Foundational Stage celebrated Animal Welfare Day with enthusiasm and compassion towards animals.

The Nursery children pasted stickers of animals to understand the difference between pet and wild animals. The LKG students drew different animals, coloured them beautifully, and gave the message “Save Animals.” The UKG students created impressive posters highlighting the importance of animal welfare.
