ALL BOYS IN THE KITCHEN: MASTERCHEFS IN THE MAKING!

In a delightful hands-on food production practical, the boys of BCM School proved that the kitchen isn't just a place for mischief — it's where magic happens too! With knives, chopping boards, and loads of enthusiasm, the students chopped, sliced, and mixed their way into everyone's hearts as they prepared a variety of colourful and healthy salads.

Their perfectly plated creations were proudly presented to the Vice Principal, Ms. Manju Bhatti, who not only appreciated their dedication but also expressed her happiness over the amazing skills displayed by the boys. She applauded the guidance of the teachers, Ms. Sanskriti Verma and Ms. Priya Aggarwal, who motivated the young chefs throughout the activity.

The delightful menu included:

Protein Salad — a wholesome mix of roasted paneer, sweet corn, veggies and a cheesy dressing

Cream Salad — a fresh vegetable blend tossed with smooth cream

Fruit Salad — a sweet and refreshing mix of fruits and cream

Other teachers too couldn't resist tasting the delicious bowls full of creativity — and to their surprise, the “naughty boys” turned out to be fantastic little chefs! Their confidence grew even stronger with every compliment they received.
