Thought of the day

"True patriotism is building a nation where justice, kindness, and honesty are everyday habits."

Health tip of the day

For better energy and immunity, add more colours to your plate — each colour in fruits and vegetables brings different antioxidants and nutrients. Include greens (spinach, broccoli), reds (tomatoes, watermelon), oranges (carrots, papaya), and purples (beetroot, berries). Try to have at least three colours in every meal. Limit processed snacks and sugary drinks, replacing them with seasonal fruits or unsalted nuts.

Book of the day

"The Discovery of India" by Jawaharlal Nehru — Written during his imprisonment (1942–1946), this classic blends history, philosophy, and personal reflection. Nehru traces India's political evolution, cultural richness, and freedom struggle, offering timeless insights into governance, unity, and identity.
